SHORT PAROLE FOR SID HENRY

Confessed Embezzler Who Was Hunted All Over
Country Will Be Released
to Aid Creditors in Clearing Up Business

Henry Sidney Green, alias Sid Henry, who was sentenced to serve five years in the state prison for fraudulent real estate transactions was granted a thirty day parole yesterday by Governor Hunt. The chief executive took the action upon recommendation from the board of pardons and paroles.

Henry is to be allowed his liberty for the thirty day period, in order that he may return to Phoenix and assist those in charge of his defunct business in an effort to straighten things out. He has the intricate affairs of the business at his finger's ends, and by his assistance may be able to save thousands of dollars to his creditors.

The petition asking for his parole, which was presented to the board of pardons and paroles and which came into Gov. Hunt's hands along with the other papers in the case, contained hundreds of names of prominent Phoenix people. With few exceptions his creditors asked for his liberty.

The recommendation which the board made to the governor was unconditional and left up to the governor the disposal to be made of the case. The governor decided that thirty days would be enough for Henry to make an attempt to straighten things out, and in case this proved not true, he would, if necessary, be given 30 days more.

During Henry's period of liberty he is to be perfectly free, and under the charge of no one. In case the parole clerk at the penitentiary wishes a report on his actions, Henry will furnish it with an account of his earnings and other business activities. The parole also stipulates that Henry is to return to the prison at the end of the period without an officer coming after him.

COOL IN FACE OF JUDGMENT

Pancho Rodriguez Sentenced to Death for Third Time, Hears Fatal Words Without Emotion; Was Reprieved Seven Times

Five years after the original judgment of the court had been passed upon Francisco Rodriguez, Judge Stanford re-sentenced the murderer to be hanged by the neck until dead, between the hours of ten and four o'clock Friday, May 19. His re-sentence followed the denial of the supreme court for motion of rehearing his application for habeas corpus.

Apparently the sentence held small significance to the man upon whom it has been passed three times and to whom has been granted seven reprieves by the governor of this state, for he appeared before the court yesterday, calm, cool and indifferent. He evidenced absolutely no concern. His very attitude recalled to the spectators the story of his cold blooded murder of his wife.

Judge Stanford stated that Rodriguez had been brought before the court by reason of a petition from the county attorney asking that he be given sentence.

The county attorney's office was represented by County Attorney Gandy and Assistant County Attorney Jacobs and Joseph S. Jenckes represented Rodriguez.

In response to the court's formal query "Is there any legal reason why sentence should not be passed?" The state replied "There is no legal reason."

Mr. Jenckes objected to the court passing sentence because five years had passed since the expiration of the ninety days allowed by law.

"I do not consider that Mr. Jenckes has offered an objection," said Mr. Gandy. The judge then ordered that the prisoner be delivered within ten days to the superintendent of the state prison at Florence to execute the judgment of the court.

Rodriguez was taken to Florence last night by Deputy George Brawner and George Selara.

PROHIBITION TICKET WILL BE DISCUSSED

Another meeting of prohibitionists will be held in W. C. T. U. hall this evening at which final action will be taken regarding the nomination of state and county tickets. At a meeting held last Saturday morning the opinion was practically unanimous in favor of placing tickets in the field, but it was decided to postpone final action until a larger attendance could be secured.

Many prohibitionists believe that the time has come to demand a better enforcement of the liquor laws and they propose to file that demand at the ballot box.

NEW AUTOMOBILE GOES OVER CLIFF

Amateur Driver Evidently had Trouble in Controlling Car—No Report of Accident Received

Circumstantial evidence points toward the fact that a serious accident might have occurred Sunday evening on the state highway.

An automobile was found overturned five hundred feet this side of the Tempe bridge on the state highway. The car number was 6405 and was owned by Slide Bobo, whose husband, Calvin Bobo is night porter of the New York store. The car was on the wrong side of the road and had gone over a cliff at least thirty-five feet. No report of an accident has been received by the sheriff's office or the city police.

The car was a Dodge recently purchased by Slide Bobo, who is said to have recently been left a fortune from her mother's estate.

AMUSEMENTS

LILLIAN GISH STARS IN GREAT PHOTOPLAY

Lillian Gish will star in "Daphne and the Pirate," a beautiful photoplay which will be shown at the Arizona theater today only.

Barely twenty years old, yet recognized as one of the most talented stars of the screen, Lillian Gish has scored what will be universally conceded her greatest triumph in her charming and delightful portrayal of Elsie Stoneman in "The Birth of a Nation," produced by Mr. D. W. Griffith.

Her successes, under the management of Mr. Griffith, cover a wide range and include many of the wonderful productions filmed under his direction. More prominent among them are "The Birth of a Nation," "The Battle of the Sexes," "Home, Sweet Home," and scores of other Griffith features.

One of Lillian's chief charms, and in many respects the keynote of her screen success, is her natural poise. She seems to live in the parts she portrays and is conceded unrivaled in the art of conveying her emotion to the camera without resorting to artificial gestures or unnatural facial expressions.

Bessie Barriscale at Lion Today
A picture that grips the spectator like a vise, that holds the attention every minute, is bound to possess merit. Bessie Barriscale in "The Painted Soul," at the Lion Theater today not only does this, but presents on the screen a character that you will remember for some time to come. "The Painted Soul" is a story of the underworld and Miss Barriscale portrays the part of a girl who is redeemed through a master painting called "The Resurrection." Chas. Ray takes the part of the artist in a convincing manner and from the opening scene, which is a court room where he goes to find a model for a picture and picks up this girl of the underworld, to the closing scene, "The Painted Soul" will hold interest. This picture will be shown at the Lion for the last time today, followed tomorrow with Fritz Brunette in "At Piney Ridge" and "The Strange Case of Mary Page," making a double feature bill.

management of the theater of many comforts.

The dancers are so far ahead of what the public expected that they created little short of a sensation in their clever stunt. By coincident the dancers are the same that work in the picture with Bosworth when he made the pictures in Tempe last winter. "The Yaqui" itself a corking good value as pictures go, is augmented out of the ordinary by this clever innovation.

Tomorrow the screen at the Columbia will hold as its attraction one of the most sterling actors of the legitimate stage. Julius Steger, than whom there is no more finished artist in America. Grave Valentine and George LeGuerra assist a notable cast with Steger in a Metro "The Blindness of Love."

Amuzu
A four reel picture of splendid value, "Heritage" is the feature of a five reel program today at the Amuzu. It is a story of the birth of a man who has to combat the world, saddled with a heritage. The story is one of the best four reels that the Universal people have turned out in the past months and coupled with it is a corking one reel comedy from the Imp studios, "A Minute Stage." Julius Steger, than whom there is no more finished artist in America. Grave Valentine the client of the little shop.
